How We Operate

Our activities support and contribute to the global understanding of sugars in the context of diet and health. We adhere to a set of Operating Principles to ensure integrity and transparency in our activities. These are based on the "Consensus Public Private Principles for Research on Food and Nutrition" (Alexander et al. 2015) and on "Guiding Principles of the Updated Framework for Industry Funding of Food and Nutrition Research: Managing Financial Conflicts and Scientific Integrity" (Larrick et al. 2022).

Our Governance Framework ensures effective direction and oversight of WSR0 by our Members. Our Member Groups provide an opportunity for members to represent their organisations and geographical regions. This active member participation facilitates diverse representation, providing a range of global perspectives and expertise, to drive our activities and decision-making processes forwards. Our Board of Directors sets the strategic direction of the organisation.

Join Our Global Network

Whether you're a sugar producer or a sugar association, understanding sugar is vital. Joining WSR0 is simple. Membership of WSR0 is open to sugar producers or associations of sugar producers. To ensure we are inclusive, our membership fees are tiered and are based on refined sugar production volume.
